

HOWLING SUCCESS

Groundhog or no groundhog this is the week for spring to begin.

Get out your shamrock tomorrow. It will be "St. Patrick's day in the morning."

Senator James and wife will take a trip to Honolulu, sailing from San Francisco March 25.

"Uncle Tinas" Walls, reputed to be 108 years old, died in Wise county, Va., Saturday.

Billy Sunday has arranged for a meeting in Louisville during March and April 1915.

The British commander says the Dardanelles will be reduced by Easter. There are still eight or ten forts to reduce.

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller died Friday in her seventy-sixth year. Her husband was on his way home from Florida at that time.

Wheat closed Saturday two cents higher than the previous week. So far as known, there are only five crops of wheat unsold in Christian county.

The operation on Secretary McAdoo for appendicitis was successful. Mrs. McAdoo waited in the anteroom while the operation was being performed.

The Duke of Brunswick, the Kaiser's son-in-law, has returned from the front suffering from a nervous breakdown that is probably an incurable disease.

Mose Glenn, who is now superintendent of public printing at Frankfort, ought to be too wise an old owl to let his name be used to endorse a patent medicine.

W. W. Cole, once a leading showman of the United States, died in New York Saturday, aged 69. His circus was absorbed by that of Barnum & Bailey several years ago.

A dog appeared at Dunlap, Tenn., carrying a human hand in his mouth and a search disclosed the body of Bob Elliott, a demented man, which had been almost devoured by dogs and hogs.

Things continue to go from bad to worse in Mexico. The latest crime concerning the United States is the shooting to death of a Chicago man named McManus in Mexico City, who objected to the looting of his property by Zapata bandits.

The Kentucky Insurance Federation was organized at Louisville last week. J. M. Morris, Louisville, president, and T. Carter Tiller, secretary. Paul M. Moore, of Erlinton, is first vice president and Col. Jouett Henry, of this city, is a member of the executive committee.

PNEUMONIA DEVELOPED

Just as John M. Harris Was Believed to Be Convalescent.

The condition of Mr. John M. Harris, of Pembroke, had again become critical yesterday. He was getting along nicely from the gunshot wound of ten days ago, but pneumonia developed a few days ago and his recovery was reported as very doubtful yesterday evening.

Missed Each Other.

That Illinois girl who spent a lot of time seeking for a perfect man for a husband, has given up the quest in despair. Probably while she was looking for the perfect man, the perfect man was looking for the perfect girl, and so they missed each other. —Harrodsburg Herald.

Choked To Death.

Near Ringo's Mill, Fleming county, the three-year-old son of Robert Roys and wife became ill while eating popcorn and choked to death before any assistance could be rendered.

KILLED AT A FESTIVAL

Was The Model School Friday Night Presented By Local Talent.

SEVERAL HUNDRED DOLLARS

Continous Laugh From Eight O'clock To Half Past Ten.

TEACHER — Miss Jean McKee. PIANIST — Mrs. Pettus White. VISITOR — Miss Ruth Haydon. GIRLS — Dr. E. N. Fruitt, Herbert McPherson, Dr. F. P. Thomas, C. E. Woodruff, L. L. Elgin, B. D. Hill, Roy Kenner, and Dr. F. M. Brown. BOYS — Emmett Haydon, Will Hester, Gabe Campbell, J. M. Neblett, Clarence Harris, J. O. Cook, Sam Adecock, C. R. Clark, T. C. Underwood, Ed Hester and Dr. C. H. Tandy.

Not fewer than 3,000 people attended the presentation of the farce comedy "The Model School," at the tabernacle Friday night.

The show was given for the benefit of the Domestic Science Department of the Virginia Street School children. More than $300 was cleared by the show. The performance began with two or three songs. The first was a solo by Gordon Cayce with a chorus of nearly 100 school children. The next was a Tipperary parody written by Mrs. C. H. Fandy, entitled "It's a Long, Long Way To Graduation." Herbert Lee McPherson, Jr., led the chorus. A pretty little speech of welcome was made by little Mary Ethel Harned and then the little folks gave way to the burlesque "pupils." The stage was equipped with school furniture and the fun began as soon as the first pupil arrived.

The costumes of the "children" were grotesque in the extreme. The boys wore knee breeches and jackets while the girls were attired in short skirts of many bright colors, with curls and ribbons galore. There were class exercises, recitations, compositions, play-time games with an occasional fight and the usual line of misconduct such as shooting paper wads, raiding lunch baskets and creating useless noises to annoy the teacher. Miss McKee filled her difficult part in an ideal manner. She kept things going at all times and even took part in the games looking after the comfort of such little "girls" as Dr. Fruitt, Charles Woodruff, Roy Kenner and other young things weighing more than 200 pounds.

In the preparation of the program Miss McKee was ably assisted by two other teachers, Misses Lottie McDaniel and Mary Walker.

JOHN L. THURMOND.

John L. Thurmond, the well known young traveling man, has returned to his "native heath" and gone into business in Gracey. He has formed a partnership with James Towler, another young live wire, who has been in the general merchandise business at Gracey for two years and the firm of Thurmond & Towler is preparing to make things hum.

Mr. Thurmond was born in this county in 1887 and when a child moved with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Thurmond, to a farm near Gracey, where he grew to manhood. Five years ago he came to Hopkinsville and spent a year learning the hardware business with the Planters Hardware Co. For four years he has been on the road as a representative of the Steel Corporation and gives up a lucrative position to go into business for himself.

The new firm will occupy a double store room recently purchased and the Towler stock will be moved into it and greatly enlarged. In addition, a big stock of hardware will be put in. Mr. Thurmond will join his partner in the personal management of the business and they may confidently be counted upon to do things on a big scale.

In addition to being a wide-awake young business man, Mr. Thurmond is something of an orator and his services are always in demand at open sessions of the Elks, of which he is a member, and upon other occasions where oratory is in demand.

LINCOLN BEACHEY

George Bell Shot To Death By John Bullock, Near Beverly.

BULLOCK IS IN COUNTY JAIL.

The Tragedy Creates Stampede At a Colored Supper Saturday Night.

During the progress of a negro supper given on the farm of Mr. John D. Jones, near Beverly, Saturday night, a difficulty arose between George Bell and John Bullock and the former was shot and killed instantly. Three shots were fired, two of them taking effect in Bell's neck and breast, and the third bullet hit Lewis Coleman, making a slight flesh wound. The room was filled with negroes when the trouble occurred and the shots caused a stampede.

The authorities were notified and the county coroner went out Sunday morning and held an inquest. Officers also went to the scene of the tragedy and while enroute they met Bullock who was coming to the city, but they failed to recognize the negro. They returned here later in the day and Deputy Sheriff Hammack and Officer Haydon arrested Bullock near the L & N. railroad and he was placed in jail.

ATTEMPTS STUNTS IN THE AIR

Once Too Often at San Francisco.

FELL 7,000 FEET TO DEATH.

Thousands Witness Accident, Which Follows Thrilling Performance.

San Francisco, March 15.—Lincoln Beachey, the aviator, was killed while making an exhibition flight at the Panama-Pacific exposition Sunday At an altitude of about 7,000 feet Beachey began a sharp descent. The wings of his aeroplane collapsed and the machine plunged into San Francisco bay.

Beahey was completing his second flight of the day when the accident occurred, in view of thousands of spectators. Having previously electrified the crowd with a series of aerial somersaults, the aviator sought to add an additional thrill with one of his sensational perpendicular drops.

The fatal fall was attributed to the fact that Beahey entrusted his life for the first time in several years to monoplane.

Lincoln Beachey was regarded as the most skillful and daring American aviator. He earned this reputation long before the French flyers began to glide through the air upside down. Beahey was in retirement when these feats were heralded, and was drawn back by his desire to exceed the remarkable flying of the French.

With an aeroplane of small wing surface he flew upside down, made spirals while head downward and looped the loop.

Beahey was born in San Francisco in September, 1887, and made his first flight in 1905 at Oakland, Calif., piloting a dirigible balloon. In 1906 he circled the capitol at Washington. He soared over New York City in July, 1907. His motor failed and the wind whirled the dirigible across the river, wrecking it.

His first heavier-than-air machine, a monoplane, was wrecked at St. Paul in 1910. He made a successful flight in Los Angeles, but then wrecked another flyer.

May 5, 1911, Beahey was the first man to circle the capitol in Washington in an aeroplane. He then startled the world by flying over Niagara Falls. Later he won the first intercity aeroplane race America, flying from New York to Philadelphia. He was the most prominent figure in the 1911 Chicago aviation meet spiraling at sharp angles.

Early in 1913 Beahey announced that he had made his last flight, asserting that he felt partly responsible for the deaths of nine aviators who had tried to emulate him. When the deeds of the daring French were chronicled he returned to flying. In October, 1913, at Hammondsport, N. Y., his machine swept several spectators from a roof, killing one.

Beahey boasted that 20,000,000 persons had seen him fly.

CHURCHES TO CONSOLIDATE.

Unanimous resolutions favoring the consolidation of the Central Baptist church with the First Baptist church, the latter congregation taking over all the property of the former, were adopted Wednesday night at a business meeting of the members of the Central church.

A business meeting of the congregation of the First church will be held next Wednesday night, when its action concerning the consolidation will be taken by that body. —Bowling Green News.

CIRCUIT COURT AGAIN BUSY

GERMANS SINK
FIVE STEAMERS

Four British Vessels And One French Destroyed By Elusive Craft.

DAMAGE TO OTHER SHIPS

Scene of Depredations Is In Main Course Across The Atlantic.

London, March 15.—The submarine U-29, one of the largest and fastest of German underwater craft, has had a successful three days off the Scilly Islands and in the English Channel, where on Thursday, Friday and Saturday she sank four British steamers and one French steamer and damaged three others.

The U 29 was chased by patrol boats, but proved too elusive, while steamers which tried to ram or escape her found the submarine was much faster than similar craft which previously had been preying on Great Britain's oversea trade.

With a German submarine in the waters around the Scilly Islands, which the big liners pass on their way across the Atlantic, much uneasiness is felt in shipping circles, and during the course of a day a report which also reached the American liner New York by wireless, was circulated that one had been torpedoed. The report it is believed, arose from the sinking of the Audacious, which belongs to the Ellerman line.

The British feel they more than evened matters up for the loss of these steamers by the victory at Neuve Chapelle and the defeat yesterday of the Germans in their effort to recover ground gained by the British on the preceding days.

According to a report issued by the war office the Germans Sunday morning delivered several minor attacks and in the afternoon a heavy one, which were all repulsed. The total number of prisoners taken in three days was 1,720, while it is estimated that the total German losses were not far short of 10,000.

British airmen have been active again and have destroyed a train at Don, near Lille.

The Belgian army continues to gain a little ground at the bend of the river Yser, and in Campagne, the Argonne and the Vosges there has been fighting. The Germans again have bombarded Ypres, Soissons and Rheims. In the latter two towns the cathedral suffered.

The French have occupied Esbremil, on the railway midway between Luneville and Rixingen, on the borders of the Lorraine.

Some idea of the stubbornness of the western battles, which received only a few words in the daily official reports, can be gathered from the French account of the capture of the village of Vauquois, on the eastern border of the Argonne forest, issued today. For days the French and Germans contended for this village, the importance of which, from a tactical point of view, is great, and the losses on both sides must have been much more numerous than in any of the historic battles.

News from the east continues to be scant.

THE DUST PROBLEM.

The dust problem is already confronting the people of the city. The accumulated dirt on the macadam streets, much of it due to oil used last season, is now pulverized into dust and dense clouds are raised by every passing automobile and the dust is blown in every direction.

Some who have advocated oil heretofore, now contend that sweeping is the best remedy against dust, to be followed by sprinkling. Last season the oil used by citizens in front of their residences cost them about 12½ cents a gallon and gave out before the end of the summer.

TOM RHEA COMES OUT FOR AUDITOR

Seeks Nomination on "Strong and Worthy" Democratic Ticket.

RECORD AS ASSESSING OFFICER

is Reviewed in Refuting Reckless Charges of Favoritism Toward Big Corporate Interests Made by Owlesley Stanley—Will Not Enter Into Controversy With His Detractor—Points With Pride to Manner in Which Present Administration of Treasurer's Office Has Overcome Deficit Inherited From Republican Predecessor.

Thomas S. Rhea of Logan county, present state treasurer of Kentucky and late chairman of the Democratic state campaign committee, today makes announcement of his candidacy for his party's nomination, in the August primary election, for the office of auditor of public accounts. In entering the race Mr. Rhea presents to the voters a brief review of his course as a member of the state board of valuation and assessment, the franchise tax board of the state, showing that that body has by unanimous action materially increased the assessment of all the large public service corporations, refuting the reckless charges made by Congressman Owlesley Stanley that the board had been influenced in behalf of the corporations.

Mr. Rhea also reviews his course in the management of the state's financial department, the treasurer's office, declaring that the present administration has well handled a difficult financial condition left to it by the last Republican administration.
His card of announcement follows:

THOMAS S. RHEA OF LOGAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY.

financial department, the treasurer's
office, declaring that the present administration has well handled a difficult financial condition left to it by
the last Republican administration.
His card of announcement follows:

The Democrats of Kentucky:

On the first Saturday of next August the Democrats of Kentucky will nominate their candidates for state offices, and make up their ticket to be submitted to the voters in the November election.

In that primary I shall be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of auditor of public accounts; and in making this announcement, I trust that my fellow Democrats will give to my candidacy their serious and favorable consideration. I shall endeavor to be very brief in what I say in this announcement, and shall rely upon the fair and discriminating intelligence of the people for what support

I may receive.

I hope I may be pardoned for calling attention briefly to my experience as an officerholder. As sheriff of my native county of Logan, and then for the last three years and more as treasurer of Kentucky, I have tried faithfully and earnestly to so perform the duties of office as to justify the confidence of the people who so honored me.

Member of Important Boards.

As state treasurer I have been, according to law, a member of the important governing boards of the state, the sinking fund board, the printing board, the capitol board and the board of valuation and assessment. This latter board is one of especial importance and consists of only three members, the auditor, the treasurer, and the secretary of state.

It deals with the important question of fixing the franchise valuations upon all corporations doing business in this state for purposes of taxation. The record made by the present board in the last three years has been remarkable and unprecedented. The board has not sought to hinder or cripple legitimate corporations of the state; but it has so increased their franchise assessments that the state is now receiving several hundred thousands of dollars more in taxes

every year from this source than it ever received before. As a member of that board I have helped diligently in the work of adjusting these matters in accordance with the best interests of the people and without causing unjust hardship upon any legitimate industry. This board, with my active assistance, in the last three years, has increased the franchise valuations upon all the corporations of the state from $45,000,000 to $132,000,000; and four of the largest railroad companies, whose assessments were raised, have enjoined the collection and carried the question into the federal courts where the cases are now pending for a decision. The favorable settlement of these cases in the courts together with the large increases from other corporations which are not contested, means a great boon to the taxpayers and a most valuable increase in our revenues. In the four years of the present administration the increase of revenues from the assessments of those corporations, which have not been contested, increases, will amount to a sum to the state far in excess of $1,000,000; and the increase of revenues from the same source to the counties, cities, towns and school districts of the state will amount to about $2,000,000 for the same period. Should the courts sustain the action of the board in the rates made upon the four railroad companies I have referred to, it would add about $1,000,000 more revenue to the state and about $2,000,000 more to the counties, cities, towns and school districts in the same four years.

Explains Single Attack.

Notwithstanding my well known record upon the board in these matters and my efforts to serve the best interests of the people by placing a larger and a just burden of taxation upon the corporations, one man alone in all the state has undertaken to criticize me about the work of the board, and to reflect upon my conduct in connection with it. Mr.
A. O. Stanley, some time ago, in announcing himself as a candidate for the nomination for governor, with his usual disregard for the truth, made an usual attack upon me and sought to create the impression that the corporations had been too favorably treated by the board, and that I and other gentlemen he mentioned had been in some way been responsible for it.
The record and the facts completely dis-prove his insinuations or charges, and show that no franchise board in the history of Kentucky ever made such large increases in the assessments of corporations. Mr. Stanley can hardly plead ignorance of these facts, because they have been discussed in the press and the courts of the state a great deal in the last two or three years. I am not a candidate for the same office that he is seeking, nor do I propose to descend into a controversy with him and would not now mention him except for his wanton attack upon me. The people of Kentucky have learned to know him as a man utterly reckless and unreliable in his statements or in his charges against other men. The only criticisms that have ever been made about the work of this board have come from those who have complained that we have raised the Dread Of An Operation.

N. Manchester, Ind.—Mrs. Eva Bashore, of this place, says: "I suffered female misery of every description. Two doctors attended me, and advised an operation. I lost weight until I weighed only ninety pounds.
I dreaded an operation, and instead, began to take Cardui. In a short time, I gained 25 pounds, and feel as well as I ever did. Cardui, I am sure, saved my life." Cardui is today used in thousands of homes, where it relieves pain and brings back strength and ambition. It is a woman's medicine, for woman's ailments, and you are urged to try it for your troubles.
Ask your druggist. He will tell you about Cardui.

Simple Names.

An Eastern reformer has started a crusade against middle names. "Can you imagine a Julius B. Caesar?" he snorts, "or a George F. Washington or a Napoleon McY. Bonaparte?"

The first reference is unfortunate, inasmuch as the gentleman's full appellation was Caius Julius Caesar. He was ashamed of it, however, and set a good example to Thomas Woodrow Wilson and Stephen Grover Cleveland by dropping his front name when he entered public life.

When you come right down to it, two names ought to be enough for anybody. A third name is generally as useless as a third wheel on a bicycle, even if it does look well in a birth notice or a wedding invitation. Of course, the more names a man has tagged onto him, the less likely he is to be mislaid or to have his mail opened by strangers, but even those advantages hardly justify a French mother in giving her helpless offspring Jean Paul Baptiste Francois George Jacques Andre for its Christian name. In Idaho a man boasting of three initials is irreverently dubbed "Alphabet," and it's no more than he deserves.

There have been lots of men who amounted to something with only one name. There was Moses, for example. Would he have had any more dignity or influence if he'd signed his name J. Ezekiel Moses? And there was Solomon and Remes and Alexander and Homer and Solon and no end of notables in the same category.

Kings and emperors, as a class, have fewer names than anybody else. No matter what silly queenmothers may happen to have them christened, when they become their own bosses they choose whatever names they like, and none of them chooses more than one. It's just plain George or Nicholas—not even an initial. And as for hyphens, who ever heard of a hyphenated king? You've got to get to the top, it seems, in order to find real democracy and simplicity in names.—Owensboro Messenger.

Cyrus in History.

The island of Cyrus has been a bone of contention among the nations ever since it was taken over by the Romans (58 B. C.), but especially during the last few decades have quarrels centered around it. England has exercised a kind of protectorate, and by dividing the courts of justice and giving the various elements of the population their own courts, something like peace has been established. Here was, however, one of the earliest of the Christian churches, the patriarchate of Cyrus, having been recognized by the council of Ephesus as early as 431.

A JOLLY COMEDIAN

In a Jolly Show Here Thursday Night.

The past season has developed an entirely new form of theatrical entertainment. It is nothing else than a musical farce. Someone conceived the idea of taking a brisk farce, bringing it up-to-date and interpolating musical numbers. The idea proved an immediate success. It is in this style of entertainment that Billy (Single) Clifford will come to Holland's Opera House on Thursday night, March 18.

The offering is called "Believe Me," being a lively farce, with a laugh in every line and interspersed with no less than eighteen tuneful songs added for good measure. Billy is seen to the best possible advantage and is surrounded by an excellent company who sing and dance in a very acceptable manner, and a lady orchestra.

Clifford's lady band will give a free concert at the corner of Ninth and Main streets at 8:30 p.m.

Body Of An Infant Found.

The body of an infant was found in the river at the foot of 5th street Saturday evening by W. T. Hurt, who reported the matter to Chief Wager. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition and it was not possible to tell either the sex or color. It was buried by the police.

Parent-Teachers Meeting.

There will be a called meeting of the parent-teachers association at the Virginia Street School at 2:30 o'clock today. All members are urged to be present.

John West and Miss Mattie Henderson were married at the court house Friday night by Judge Knight. The young people reside about ten miles east of the city.

About 1:30 p.m. Sunday the fire department was called to Second and Lovier streets, where the roof of a cabin was on fire. The blaze was soon put out and the damage was small.

A tenement house near the corner of Virginia street and Alumni Ave., caught on fire yesterday morning and the department was again called out. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done.

The great Itala photo spectacle, by D'Annunzio, Cabiria, will take three hours, with a cast of 5,000.

Its magnificence of action surpasses human belief. Everything happens except resurrection and ascension and that could be easily pictured by the almost omnipotent artistic privileges and qualities of the moving picture with chant.

D'Annunzio is in his element. He rides bareback and dumb over the mighty bulwarks of antiquity, striding the savage brutalities, the superstitions, the magnificent man-beast chances, like giant upon a leviathan. Sometimes he does such extravagant things that he is amusing. One sits breathless and wondering what on earth are under the seas are in the air more can this poet of degeneracy do and do with such superb masculinity and truth?

"CABIRIA" all told is only the tossing about of beautiful little child from one catapult of human fanaticism and power to another; from one miracle of divine revelation to another; from one upheaval of nature in revolt to another. The child is merely a father in a perfect uproar of tumbling steeples and walls, spouting volcanoes, roaring fires, angry gods, slave mastodons and mighty feats of strength, battling with waves, overcoming gigantic obstructions, fighting mobs, tearing down dynasties, climbing, bursting bonds falling, rising, attacking danger without a qualm.

Farm and Fireside says:
"Little wonder that first-class maple sugar syrups are scarce. Only one tree is tapped for every five

PLAN FOR CLEAN EGGS

Sunshine Is Necessary for the Health of Laying Hens.Poultryman Should Follow Nature's Plan and Make Winter Months Comfortable to Fowls—Furnish Plenty of Nests.

(By A. C. SMITH.)

Sunshine is absolutely necessary for the health and vigor of the laying hen. Low windows should be set so that the sun will shine into every part of the house during some part of the day. Roosts should be placed on a level, and not too high, as the hens are apt to injure themselves either by growing, falling or flying against a projection about the house. Keep the windows in the poultry house clean.

A Trap Nest With Door Closed.

Rub them repeatedly with old newspapers. Sunshine in winter is the greatest of tonics.When poultrymen and farmers realize that the sooner they follow nature's plan and make the winter months as near like spring and summer months, the sooner they will realize the height of their ambition—winter eggs. Getting winter eggs is really quite easy if given a little thought and study. Using the gray matter in your skull will make you a successful poultryman.Poultry keepers may easily reduce the percentage of dirty or soiled eggs, and losses entailed to insignificant figures.First, an ample number of nests is,
of course, necessary, but an ample number means no more, than, and probably not as many as, are usually directed by poultry writers. Laying houses are, as a rule, provided with a sufficient number, but where the keeper falls down is in failing to supply enough nesting material and floor litter.Obviously the nesting material must be clean, or the eggs become soiled byDoor Opened, Showing Position of Trigger When Trap Nest Is Set.contact, and it must be sufficient in quantity, or the eggs are often broken by dropping upon the hard floor of the nest. In houses where the dropping boards are above the nests, and the custom is to sand the boards, small stones often drop into the nest and breakage results when newly laid eggs fall upon them. The condition of nests should be noticed daily, and the nesting material replenished when necessary. Plenty of nesting material prevents breakage and insures clean eggs.An ample and clean litter on the floor is also very essential when an A-1 clean product is sought. Particularly is this true when the hens are allowed outdoors during wet weather. The litter acts as a foot mat for the hens on their way to the nest.Accidents will happen, but the best

Do You Continually Feel Sluggish, Disinterested?

If you do, it is probably caused by your liver. When the liver fails to easily, and if neglected, chronic

I. H. C. Corn Planter

This is the Corn Planter that has gained such a remarkable reputation in the past two years. It is the latest type machine for planting corn, peas and fertilizer. The variable drop permits of quick shift to 2, 3 or 4 kernels in a hill. The two section cut off acts instantly. The duck bill valve kicks away the dirt from the boot. The equalizing spring carries the load. By means of a malleable iron crank connected with the lifting lever the marker is raised automatically and simultaneously with the raising of the runners.

We cannot praise this machine too highly.

Tobacco Planters

Last year many farmers profited by using a tobacco planter. Every farmer that plants as much as 20 acres of tobacco should have a planter. This machine relieves that tired back and sets the plant better and at the time you and your plants are ready. Remember it is a difficult matter to get labor just at the time your plants are ready to set.

We have these machines in stock and would like to show you.

McCHESNEY ENTERS RACE FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Stands for Constitutional Amendment Submitting to the People Vote on State-Wide Prohibition of Sale of Liquor.

Says it Must Be Determined Whether They or the Whiskey Interests Shall Rule Kentucky.

With the declaration in favor of State-wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as the chief plank in his platform, the Hon. H. V. McChesney, of Frankfort, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the State primary of next August.

Mr. McChesney declares that if nominated and elected, he will call upon the General Assembly to submit to the people for their ratification an amendment to the Kentucky Constitution providing for State-wide prohibition. In the formal announcement of his candidacy, Mr. McChesney, who served years ago as the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction and Secretary of State, promises an abridgement of public expenditures where it can be properly done, and the further advancement of the present program in educational and agricultural development.

His announcement is as follows: "To the Democratic voters of Kentucky: After mature deliberation I have decided to enter the race for the Democratic nomination for the office of Governor, in the primary to be held August 1, 1915. In making this announcement I do not whose support I seek that I briefly outline the policies I advocate.

I am in favor of state wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. If nominated and elected I shall urge upon the Legislature of 1916 a passage of an Act submitting a prohibition amendment to the Constitution of the people for their ratification. In view of the large amount of capital invested in the liquor business, however, I shall favor the State in improved methods of agriculture and in the construction of good roads is very gratifying. If elected I shall aid in every way possible in the furtherance of both of these great interests, so vital to the progress and welfare of the whole people.

I am in hearty sympathy with the progressive spirit which has marked the State's advance along many lines in recent years, and it shall be my ambition if elected to see this spirit yield a still greater fruitage in the agricultural, industrial and commercial development of the Commonwealth.

My record as Superintendent of Public Instruction and as Secretary of State is before the people for their judgment, and I shall enter into no detailed account of my services in these positions. The people of the State are more or less familiar with the record made, and I am willing to risk their judgment of my fitness for the office of Governor on that record.

During my term as Superintendent of Public Instruction the State population increased largely, the teaching force of the State put on a more efficient basis, and other educational progress made. At a provision in the Act giving a reasonable time, after its ratification, before it becomes operative, in order that those engaged in the business may adjust their affairs without undue sacrifice.

I have no fault to find with the County Unit Law. I have favored every advanced step taken in its various amendments. It is a step in the right direction, and has been a great blessing to the Commonwealth. Under it 106 counties have voted out the liquor interests, and I am in favor of the will of the people as expressed at the polls, have been contesting every election where the result was dry, and going into the courts with every possible tenacity.

In an effort to defeat the will of the people, not only have they been attacking the law and its enforcement, but they have made it their business to bitterly oppose every man who aspires to public office who does not take his orders from them. A temperance man, not from any office in Kentucky, however humble, without feeling the weight of their wrath, expressed in the usual way. Their efforts to dominate the politics of the State have increased as county after county has been added to the dry column, until the temperance cause becomes a menace to popular government.

In view of all this it seems that there is but one solution to the problem, and that is to submit it to the whole people that we may know once and for all time whether the people of the liquor interests are to rule Kentucky. Not only is this the logic of the situation, but it is absolutely fair. Who can be heard to say that the people as a whole haven't a right to pass on a question so vitally affecting their moral and financial welfare?

We submit our views to the whole people, why not submit this question, infinitely more vital to them?

H. V. McCHESNEY.

The close of my term I wrote the bill increasing the rural school term from five months to six, and the companion bill providing for a time for the extra term, and securing their passage by the Legislature.

As Secretary of State I was a member of the Board which built the new Capitol, and was also a member of the Board which assessed all franchises, taxes, and taxes were very largely increased during that term. The two administrations covered by those eight years marked an era of great prosperity in the governmental affairs of the State, big state debts paid off, the school term increased to six months, two State Normal Schools established, the State University put on a more comprehensive basis, a new Capitol built, many other progressive movements fostered, all without increasing the tax record of the State, and the State in the succeeding administration. I am proud to have had a part in making that record.

During the seven years since I retired from public office I have responded to every call of the Democratic party.

During this time I have served in my personal affairs. I have stamped the State for my party in every campaign, giving my time and services to the success of the party's nominees.

My eight years experience in public office has served to allow me to insight into the affairs of the State government that ought to prove valuable to the Chief Executive. My service to my party since retiring from office perhaps entitles me to some consideration.

As a public official and a private citizen, with whatever ability I may possess, submit my candidacy to the Democracy of the State. If nominated and elected I shall devote my entire time and energy to the discharge of the duties of the office in a spirit of private and public, national and business interests of the Commonwealth, to the end that it may become a better place even than it is now in which to live.

Respectfully submitted,

H. V. McCHESNEY.

Forty-six years old, virile, enthusiastic, and of a ready wit, Mr. McChesney has made himself one of the best known Democrats in Kentucky through his interest in the interests of the party in every campaign since boyhood. He entered public life at the age of 25, when he was elected County Superintendent of Livingston. He was re-elected to that office in 1890. Previous to this he had taught in Caldwell, his native county; Crittenden, where he was reared; Webster and Livingston.

From County Superintendent of Livingston he was promoted to the office of State Auditor in 1896, and in 1897 he was elected to the State legislature. In 1901 he was elected Secretary of State on the ticket with J. C. W. Beckham.

Their friendship has been continuous and close, and the two men, Mr. McChesney and Mr. Beckham, the speakers at the State headquarters in 1911 and, excepting Governor McCreary himself, made more speeches in the campaign than any other Democrat. He stumped the State with Mr. Beckham when the latter was elected.

Probably no public man in the State is in more demand as a speaker on all sorts of occasions than Mr. McChesney, and his interests in affairs touching the community, as well as the welfare of the State, are well known in Frankfort. He has resided and has been practicing law since leaving State office. He is at present a member of the City Board of Education, a Director of the Y. M. C. A., Vice-President of the Kentucky State Historical Society, and a deacon in the Baptist Church and President of its Sunday School.

Another large saving can be accomplished by the elimination of all useless offices, and if elected I shall institute a

Some Forms of Rheumatism Curable.

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All these types can be healed absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain, and especially Rheumatic Pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted part and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine." GOING BACK FOR COLORS.

The cry for new colors has led the selling agents in the piece goods market to ransack their shelves for old samples. One agent was found yesterday whose desk was littered with samples and camphor. He had gone back to the samples of twenty years ago to see if something could not be found to suit the fancy of his customers. Among the goods he found were cloths in colors closely resembling the shades that are now popular. There was one shade that might have been described as between a sand and a tan color. Green mixture cloths were also found. While the colors unearthed in this manner can be considered in scarcely any other light than that of staples, the change they offer is apt to prove an attractive one to buyers. — New York Times.

Princess

The Chaplin-Turpin comedy at the Princess today, is a side-splitter.

There is literally a riot of fun when Charles Chaplin takes "A Night Out," which is the title of his second Essanay two-reel comedy.

Thousands of photoplay enthusiasts as well as exhibitors have written Essanay telling of the great success of the play. Exhibitors who have run this comedy declare that it is the funniest they have ever seen, and that their spectators were convulsed with laughter.

With Ben Turpin, Chaplin attempts to drink the town dry. They spill a pie over a giant, who hurls them out of the cafe into the street after nearly choking them to death. They manage to zig-zag their way to their hotel, where Chaplin is horrified by running across a woman in pajamas, with a pug. The dog follows Chaplin to his room and the pajama-clad woman chases after her pet. The terrified Chaplin takes refuge in his bath room.

In the meantime the husband of the pajama-clad woman returns and looks for his wife. She sees him through the crack of the door and slams it and hides. After the distracted husband runs down to the hotel office Chaplin kindly escorts the dog and woman to her room. Friend husband suddenly returns and Chaplin takes refuge in the bed. Husband sits down on the bed to take off his shoes and discovers Chaplin. He hauls him out and hurls him at the side of the wall with deadly intent.

Chaplin is thrown through the bath room door and falls into the tub filled with water. After coming to the surface sputtering like a whale exhalations are in order. Mr. Chaplin decides that a night out once in a long, long while is quite sufficient.

Political Dope.

Louisville Times:
Judge W. S. Hager, of Owensboro, spent yesterday in Louisville. He said he came up to get onto the latest developments in the Governor's race on the Democratic side. Judge Hager said the people were beginning to take a lively interest in the gubernatorial contest in his section and that the sentiment among Democrats was strongly in favor of a platform convention before the primary.

DRAWS LINE ON PROHIBITION.

Editor Harry A. Sommers, of the Elizabethtown News and active in the State Democratic affairs, was a visitor in Louisville yesterday. Although an ardent county unit advocate and member of the Committee on Resolutions in the 1911 State Convention which put the county unit plank in the platform, Mr. Sommers is strongly opposed to State-wide prohibition and will vigorously oppose any effort to make it a party tenet.
